

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA
LAKE CHARLES DIVISION

NICOLE EDWARDS

CIVIL ACTION NO. 2:19-cv-01150

VERSUS

JUDGE JAMES D. CAIN, JR.

CITY OF LAKE CHARLES, ET AL MAGISTRATE JUDGE: KATHLEEN KAY

PROTECTIVE ORDER

Considering the foregoing motion, and the reasons given in support thereof:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that a protective order issue herein, and the same is hereby rendered by this Court, in favor of Defendants, CITY OF LAKE CHARLES, CHIEF OF POLICE SHAWN CALDWELL, CORPORAL BENDY FALCON, OFFICER DAKOTA BACCIGALOP, OFFICER JACOB PEARSON,, ordering that the City of Lake Charles provide to Plaintiff's counsel a copy of LCPD's policies, without redactions, on use of force (A-19) and canine unit operations (O-19), or any additional LCPD policies produced in the future that, with production to Plaintiff's counsel, shall become subject to the same restrictions detailed in this order (LCPD policies), but review of, and use of, these policies shall be limited only to attorneys or expert witnesses involved in the above-captioned civil lawsuit and shall not be disseminated to anyone outside the scope of the above-captioned civil lawsuit. Plaintiff's counsel may compare policies and/or address substantive changes, if any, to the LCPD policies either before or after the specific policy in effect at the time of the occurrence. Counsel in the above-captioned lawsuit may use written LCPD policies without redactions in any discovery depositions, as an exhibit in a motion submitted to the court, or at trial, provided that any such court exhibit shall be offered under seal to prevent dissemination to anyone outside the scope of the above-captioned civil lawsuit.

THUS DONE AND SIGNED at Lake Charles, Louisiana, on this 1st day of October, 2020.

United States Magistrate Judge
